What is Personal Information?

Personal Information is information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person. An identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier, or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.

We do not consider personal information to include information that has been anonymized or aggregated so that it can no longer be used to identify a specific natural person, whether in combination with other information or otherwise.

We collect personal information from you when you use our Services.

What We Collect:

The provision of all personal information is voluntary, but may be necessary in order to use our Services (such as registering an account).

We may collect the following personal information:

- Contact information:
 - When you create an account with us
 - When you register to our events
 - When you fill in forms on our websites
- Information we are required or authorized by applicable national laws to collect and process in order to authenticate or identify you or to verify the information we have collected.

Personal Information We Collect Using Cookies and Similar Technologies

We use cookies, web beacons (or pixels), unique identifiers, and similar technologies to collect information about the pages you view, the links you click, and other actions you take when using our Services, within our advertising or email content.

We use Google Analytics which is a web analysing tool of Google Inc. for the purposes of the adequate design and continuous optimization of our website. Google Analytics works with cookies and creates pseudonymised usage profiles, which enable an analysis of your use of our website. Information stored in such cookies (such as browser type/version, operating system used, referrer URL, Hostname of the accessing computer, time of server request) are usually transmitted to and stored on Google's servers.

How We Use Cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you. As an individual the web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us. You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Personal Information Collected from Other Sources

We allow you to share information with social media sites, or use social media sites to create your account or to connect your account with the respective social media site. Those social media sites may give us automatic access to certain personal information retained by them about you (e.g., content viewed by you, content liked by you, and information about the advertisements you have been shown or have clicked on, etc.). You control the personal information you allow us to have access to through the privacy settings on the applicable social media site and the permissions you give us when you grant us access to the personal information retained by the respective social media site about you. By associating an account managed by a social media site with your account and authorizing us to have access to this information, you agree that we can collect, use and retain the information provided by these social media sites in accordance with this privacy notice. We may also use plug-ins or other technologies from various social media sites. If you click on a link provided via a social media plug in, you are voluntarily establishing a connection with that respective social media site.

If you give us personal information about someone else, you must do so only with that person's authorization. You should inform them how we collect, use, disclose, and retain their personal information according to our privacy notice.

What We Do With The Information We Gather:

We require this information to understand your needs and provide you with a better service, and in particular for the following reasons:

- Internal record keeping.
- Improvement of our products and services.
- Periodic promotional emails about updates or other information which we think you may find interesting using the contact details which you have provided. You can opt out of receiving such emails by clicking on the unsubscribe link which we include in all our marketing emails.
- Emails/alerts to you based on your account settings.
- Personalized experience (including advertising and marketing) on our sites according to your interests.
- Detect, prevent, mitigate and investigate fraudulent or illegal activities.

How Long We Keep Your Data

We retain your personal information for as long as necessary to provide the Services you have requested, or for other essential purposes such as complying with our legal obligations, resolving disputes, and enforcing our policies.

How We Protect Your Data:

We protect your personal data against unauthorised access, unlawful use, accidental loss, corruption or destruction.

We keep these security measures under review and refer to industry security standards to keep up to date with current best practice.

Your Rights:

You have the following rights concerning our processing of your personal data:

- Right to access
- Right to rectification
- Right to erasure
- Right to object (on grounds relating your particular situation) in case of processing of your personal data based on our legitimate interest (e.g. direct marketing)
- Right to withdraw your consent at any time in case of any consent-based processing of your personal data without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent before your withdrawal;
- Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority.

To raise any objections or to exercise any of your rights, you can send an email to us at hello@maruland.io

To exercise choices regarding cookies, you can modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

To stop receiving marketing emails from us, you can opt out of receiving marketing emails by clicking on the unsubscribe link which we include in all our marketing emails.

If you have created an online profile or listing with us and would like to update the information you have provided to us, you may contact us at hello@maruland.io to make changes or corrections to your information. You may also contact us as detailed in the Contact Us section, below.

When you get in touch, we will come back to you as soon as possible and where possible within one month. If your request is more complicated, it may take a little longer to come back to you but we will come back to you within two months of your request. There is no charge for most requests, but if you ask us to provide a significant amount of data, for example, we may ask you to pay a reasonable admin fee. We may also ask you to verify your identity before we provide any information to you.
